

China Seeks to End Long Isolation

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON
Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — Western authorities specializing in Communist Chinese affairs say the Peking government is seeking to end its long self-imposed isolation and may even seek entry into the United Nations.

If this appraisal is correct it would mark a far-reaching change in the diplomatic strategy and posture of Chairman Mao Tse-tung's regime, which for years has viewed the United Nations with contempt.

Veteran diplomats today cited these pointers toward a more active Chinese role in world affairs:

—Peking is preparing to set up a network of international air services, with a link to Paris, and is thinking of buying a fleet of British or French jetliners.

—Prime Minister Chou En-lai is due to leave this month on a swing expected to take him through Zambia, Tanzania, South Yemen and possibly France.

—The Chinese Communists are nearing agreement with Canada, Austria, Belgium and Italy for the establishment of full diplomatic ties.

—China has warmly thanked those countries which have consistently backed its claims for representation in the United Nations and has virtually ceased denouncing the world body in its propaganda.

—Peking has set out systematically to mend its political fences in the West and the non-aligned world, seemingly to develop its own lines of communication.

Qualified diplomats in London report that in a previously unpublicized incident, Communist Chinese Deputy Foreign Minister Lo Kuei-po showed up unexpectedly last June 12 at a British reception in Peking honoring the birthday of Queen Elizabeth II. Lo asked Charge d'Affaires John Denson: "Why don't our two governments discuss the question of exchanging ambassadors?"

In London, Chinese Charge d'Affaires Ma Chia-chun repeated the question to Foreign Office men. John Morgan, who heads the China desk at the Foreign Office, plans a visit to Peking to attend the October revolution celebrations. It is considered certain he will discuss with Chinese officials the matter of swapping ambassadors.

Workers may require a subsequent adjustment, obviously meaning upward.

Kenneth Hamilton and Eddie Whitman

The Hope Kiwanis Club was the recipient of an Honorable Mention Award for their achievements in the 1969-1970 administrative year under the presidency of Kiwanian Bob Peterson. The award was made at the Mo-Ark District Convention held in Little Rock September 12th, 13th and 14th. Dean Murphy, District Treasurer, F.C. Crow, Lt. Governor Division 24, and Club President, K.G. Hamilton, accompanied by their wives, attended the convention as delegates of the Local Kiwanis Club.

Eddie Whitman, a past officer of the local club, accepted the award at Tuesday's meeting of the Kiwanis Club on behalf of Past President Peterson who found it necessary to take a leave of absence from the club.

The streamer, symbolic of the award, was added to those already earned in previous years and attached to the Kiwanis Banner. In 1961 the Hope Club earned first place in the entire Mo-Ark District and in 1962 placed second.

DETROIT (AP) — New car shoppers will find sticker prices up an average $153 on 1971 Ford and Lincoln-Mercury automobiles when they go on sale Friday.

Ford was the first automaker to announce its full range of prices for 1971s, and the increase averages 4.6 per cent. If the industry follows suit, this year's jump would be the highest since an average 7.17 per cent on 1957 models.

Ford also said Wednesday rising material costs and a new wage contract yet to be negotiated with the United Auto

Soviet Shot Sat. Is Now Orbiting Moon

MOSCOW (AP) — Luna 16, the Soviet moon probe launched Saturday, has gone into a circular orbit around the moon, Tass announced today.

The unmanned craft is circling the moon 68 miles above the surface, the official Soviet news agency said. All systems are functioning normally and radio contact is being maintained with the capsule, the announcement added.

Details on Luna 16's mission have not been revealed. Tass said Saturday only that it would "carry out exploration of the moon and near-moon space."

Today's brief announcement said one course correction was made Sunday to put the craft on the path for a lunar rendezvous.

"According to telemetric data, the equipment aboard is functioning normally," Tass said. "The flight control center is processing the incoming information."

Ground controllers put the craft into orbit today by firing braking rockets as it reached the vicinity of the moon. It was circling the moon every 119 minutes.

This is the first Soviet moon shot since July 1969, when Luna 15 orbited the moon, then crashed into the lunar surface as U.S. astronauts were making their first manned moon landing in Apollo 11.

The secrecy that surrounded the latest shot is standard; the Soviets announce their space accomplishments after the fact to avoid having to admit failures.

hecklers and told them: "You people out there preach a lot about dissent but you're afraid of other points of view because you don't have the strength of your own convictions."

The hecklers shouted. Agnew, his face set in a chilled smile, waved his right hand back and forth like a conductor as if to keep time with the chant. "You're pathetic," he said.

WR Responds to Statement About Guards

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has sent a letter to Dr. Jerry Jewell of North Little Rock, president of the state NAACP, in response to a statement made Monday by Jewell that the governor's office did not respond to a request to send National Guardsmen to Earle during a recent racial disturbance.

Rockefeller said that requests for National Guard assistance are normally made by local officials or the State Police working with local officials.

"Situations such as that at Earle are difficult enough to resolve—even with long hours of sensitive and difficult negotiations—without burdening those on both sides of the difficulty with procedures recommended by persons not living in the community and apparently not acquainted with the facts," the letter said.

Rockefeller said in the letter that he would not "accommodate requests which come from those not adequately informed."

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED for it, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

TOO LATE SHE GETS SMART

Dear Helen:

I am 18 and a bride. And miserable.

We went steady for two years. I started having doubts about the marriage soon after we got engaged, but Allen wouldn't listen.

Then I met Bill, and I knew I wasn't ready for marriage. So I broke the engagement, but my folks wouldn't hear of it. And Allen kept begging. And all my friends "advised." I was finally worn down. I told Bill it wouldn't work, and set my wedding date with Allen. Everyone was happy—except the bride!

I've been married two months and all I can think of is getting out. I'm still crazy about Bill, and probably always will be, but my folks think he's no good (because he isn't money mad). They worship Allen. He'll PROVIDE for me, they say, whereas Bill is "the hippie type."

I feel like such a fool, Helen. It was a big, expensive wedding with all kinds of terrific gifts, and both sides of the family so happy because they're all best friends. How can I hurt them. But if I don't, I'll be hurting Allen and myself a good deal more. He's too nice a guy to get a wife who doesn't love him. —NEVA

Dear Neva: I'm guessing, of course, but is it possible you turned away from Allen toward Bill, ("The Unacceptable Hippie") because all that ecstatic acceptance (of the "great provider") made you resentful? A girl likes to think she has made her own choice and when families and friends push too hard, she's liable to back off. True, you weren't ready for marriage, but neither are you ready for divorce and a second try with Bill whose biggest attraction is that no one approves of him.

So give yourself six months to grow up, and dig deep for your real feelings. You may be surprised at what you discover—if those relatives will just stop pushing! —H.

Dear Helen:

I know there have been a lot of letters about drugs, but can I add my bit? I'm one of the young generation and, like many my age, I wanted to know what was so great about drugs.

I smoked a little grass and found it to be an unusual experience. I became lightheaded and lost some control of my reflexes and couldn't think clearly. Afterwards I compared what I might gain from drugs to what I might lose and decided it wasn't worth it.

A few tries at mild stuff aren't any more dangerous than getting drunk. It's when a person goes back for more, the trouble starts. From the dopers I know, it's plan to see they can't stop. They have to steal or sell to support their habits. They become constant liars—even to themselves. They lose concern for everything. They even steal from their own fellow addicts. You can't talk to them rationally, so you can't really help them. One minute they're begging for you to get them out of this bag, and the next they're conning someone out of a fix.

Most kids start taking drugs because they think it's fun, and they want to be part of the gang. They keep on because for a while they feel happier. By the time they don't feel happy any more, they're taking drugs to keep from feeling more miserable than they can bear. Their "beautiful answer to dreams" has become a nightmare. —J. C.

Sheridan Comes Here on Friday

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Overcoming numerous penalties and setbacks last Friday night against Prescott the Hope Bobcats trounced the Curley Wolves, 27-14, raising their record to 1-1 and ranking tenth in the AAA state polls.

Hopefully much of the same is in store this week when the Sheridan Yellowjackets invade Hammons Stadium for an 8:00 p.m. kickoff which promises to be a good one. The Yellowjackets have lost two close games but figure to bounce back and be one of the toughest teams in their conference.

Sheridan will be guided by 185 pound quarterback Eddy Easley, who has taken over the controls after Dan Walters injured his hand in preseason drills. He will be assisted in the backfield by halfback Jerry Reid, Bill Shinn, and Bill Sites, all three who are able blockers as well as good solid running backs.

Joe Yancey and Dean Davenport are the offensive ends and two of the best in the area. Yancey, at 240 pounds, and Davenport, at 180, both have good size, speed, and can catch the ball real good.

The tackles appear solid with John Speights and David May holding down the two positions. May is also one of the best players and headed for post season honors, barring injury.

Dan Walters was moved to guard with the other side held down by Freddy Easterly, a 165 pounder. The center will most likely be Jim Skelton, a reasonably quick blocker.

Sheridan basically runs the "T", winged "T", and slot "T" formations smoothly mixing up their plays.

Defensively the Jackets are pretty solid with a 5-3 defense changing to a 6-2 near the goal line. The average weight of the line is about 183 pounds.

Leading the defense are secondary men Tommy Ware, Mike Jones, and Danny Young, all three small but quick.

Gary Eagle, a 170 pound senior is one of the workhorses of the tough eleven, and is slated to be another post season honor graduate. Another standout is Davenport, a two-way starter.

Sheridan returns 21 lettermen from last year and had a 26 game conference winning string going until this year when they lost the first two games. The Yellowjackets are big and quick, but have a depth problem that could complicate matters, although that is not likely.

So, when Friday rolls around we'll see who wants to win the most and raise their record.

Tonight, the Hope Bobkittens travel to Ashdown for a 7:30 p.m. battle and it will be a big victory if Hope wins. After losing a heartbreaking opener, 6-0, to Prescott, the Bobkittens will be eagerly trying to come back.

Using a tough defense and an attacking offense the Kittens have a good all-round team and will almost assuredly be showing the power they have to move the ball.

Porks Work on Their Passing Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas worked on its passing game during a two-hour practice session here Wednesday.

Razorback Coach Frank Broyles said his team concentrated on trying to sharpen the timing of the passing game. He also said the team worked on kicking.

"Our defense had the best practice it has had lately," Broyles said. "This made practice a lot better."

Broyles said Wednesday that captains for Saturday's game against Oklahoma State would be defensive back Jerry Moore, linebacker Guy Parker, split end Chuck Ducus and guard Ronnie Hammons.

The Razorbacks were to work in street clothes today.

Pittsburgh Opens Gap to 2 Games

There is a bit of daylight in the whacky national League East race today, thanks mainly to the pesky Montreal Expos and powerful Bob Gibson.

Pittsburgh's front-running Pirates took advantage of help from both those sources Wednesday to open a two-game gap over both Chicago and New York as the season swings into its final two weeks.

The Pirates needed five pitchers—three of them in the ninth inning—but held on to whip Philadelphia 5-3. Meanwhile, Montreal jolted New York 4-2 and Gibson pitched St. Louis to an 8-1 victory over Chicago.

In other National League action, Cincinnati clinched a tie for the West Division title by nipping Houston 3-2 while San Diego was stopping Los Angeles 4-0.

Atlanta whipped San Francisco 10-7.

In the American League, Baltimore clinched a tie for the East Division title, even though Washington blanked the Orioles 2-0, when Boston dropped New York 3-1. Detroit ripped Cleveland 6-3, Oakland took Milwaukee 4-1 and California tripped Minnesota 5-1. Chicago's doubleheader at Kansas City was rained out.

Manny Sanguillen ripped two singles and a double, and scored twice to pace Pittsburgh over Philadelphia. Richie Hebner also had three hits for the Pirates.

Bob Moose went the first five innings, drove in a run with a single and earned the victory. Mudcat Grant, making his first appearance for Pittsburgh worked until the ninth and then Dave Giusti, Joe Gibbon and John Lamb joined their way out of a Phillie rally to preserve the victory.

Gibson made it easy for the Cards, cruising to his 22nd victory and 11th in his last 12 decisions on a six-hitter.

Ted Simmons cracked a fourth inning home run touching off a three-run Cardinal rally that put Gibson in control. Joe Torre tagged a two-run homer in the ninth, wrapping it up.

Ron Santo's 26th homer accounted for Chicago's only run off Gibson.

The Expos beat the Mets for the 10th time this season and moved into fifth place in the East Division on Steve Renko's five-hitter. Two of the hits were homers by Art Shamsky, accounting for both Met runs.

Tom Seaver absorbed the loss, seventh in his last nine decisions, with RBI singles by Marv Staehle and Jim Gosger keying a three-run third inning for the Expos. Donn Clendenon's two-base throwing error put Montreal in business and Seaver wild pitched another run home.

The Mets were off today while the Cubs played the Cardinals and the Pirates met the Phillies.

The Reds get a chance to wrap the West all up tonight without even stepping on the field. Cincinnati has the day off but if the Dodgers lose to Houston, it'll be all over.

Cincinnati moved closer to the inevitable on Gary Nolan's 17th victory with Clay Carroll's ninth inning relief nailing it down.

Nolan contributed a run-scoring triple to a three-run Reds' rally in the fifth inning and then scored on Bobby Tolan's single. Jimmy Wynn ripped his 26th homer of the year for the Astros in the ninth.

Clarence Gaston hammered his 27th homer and Ivan Murrell singled home two runs and made a spectacular catch as Dave Roberts pitched San Diego past L.A. Murrell's tumbling catch over the left field fence robbed Jim Lefebvre of a home run and preserved the shutout for Roberts, who pitched a seven-hitter.

Rico Carty ripped four hits including a single that drove in Atlanta's winning run in the eighth inning as the Braves bested the Giants. Carty increased his National League leading batting average to .362.

Orioles Lose But Clinch Title Share

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bert Blyleven is on strike, Rolfe Fingers is off relief ... and Clyde Wright is carrying the usual work load.

The trio pitched in and authored some fine performances in the American League Wednesday night.

—Blyleven struck out the first six batters to tie a major league record, but his Minnesota Twins lost to California 5-1 anyway.

—Fingers, usually a reliever, made a rare start and stopped Milwaukee 4-1 for Oakland.

—Wright pitched a three-hitter in that California victory and became the second in Angel history to win 20 games in a season.

Baltimore clinched a tie for the AL East pennant despite losing to Washington 2-0 when Boston beat second-place New York 3-1. Detroit thumped Cleveland 6-3 in the night's other contest.

The Chicago-Kansas City twin-night doubleheader was rained out.

In the National League, St. Louis blasted Chicago 8-1; Atlanta outslugged San Francisco 10-7; Montreal upended New York 4-2; Pittsburgh beat Philadelphia 5-3; Cincinnati downed Houston 3-1 and San Diego shakked Los Angeles 4-0.

Blyleven, a rookie, got Sandy Alomar, Jim Fregosi, Alex Johnson and Ken McMullen swinging and whizzed third strikes past Tony Gonzalez and Jay Johnstone to tie the mark held by two other pitchers. Detroit's John Hiller did it Aug. 6, 1968 and Boston's Ray Culp equalled it on May 11 of this season.

Wright, a one-game winner last year, equalled Dean Chance's 20-game season in 1964 with Wednesday night's sparker. He allowed only singles to Rick Renick and Cesar Tovar and a double to George Mitterwald.

Alex Johnson slammed a solo homer in the fourth and the Angels struck for three unearned runs in the sixth. Wright not in 20-11.

Fingers scattered eight hits and helped out with a ninth-inning homer. Don Mincher knocked in two runs with a first-inning single and sixth-inning homer. Fingers brought his record to 7-9.

Rookie Bill Gogolewski and Darold Knowles combined for a four-hitter over Baltimore, ending the Orioles' seven-game winning streak. Loser Jim Palmer, who failed in his third try to join teammates Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally as 20-game winners, was victimized in part by two misplayed hits.

George Scott rapped a two-run single, keying a three-run Boston seventh as the Red Sox clipped the Yankees. It snapped a five-game losing string for the Sox.

Al Kaline's leadoff homer triggered a six-run fourth inning that powered Detroit over Cleveland, ending a five-game Indians' winning string.

Bonds, San Francisco 189.

Doubles—W. Parker, Los Angeles 44; Rose, Cincinnati 36; Bonds, San Francisco 36.

Triples—W. Davis, Los Angeles 16; Kessinger, Chicago 14.

Home runs—Bench, Cincinnati 44; B. Williams, Chicago 39; Perez, Cincinnati 39.

Stolen bases—Tolan, Cincinnati 53; Brock, St. Louis 48.

Pitching (12 decisions)—Simpson, Cincinnati 14-3, .824, 3.02; Gibson, St. Louis 22-6, .786, 3.12.

Strikeouts—Seaver, New York 278; Gibson, St. Louis 259.

Rules for Nat'l Bass Tournery at Millwood

Grand National Bass Bonanza Tournament Rules:

1. Any contestant who displays poor sportsmanship, violates these rules, or violates the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission laws will be disqualified and permanently barred from AAA Membership and all future AAA tournaments.

2. Rule changes — A complete set of rules will be formulated for each tournament presented by the AAA. These rules will remain unchanged throughout the tournament. Any person wishing to suggest a new rule or change, may submit his suggestion in writing and it will be considered by the AAA rules committee for future tournaments. Interpretation of these rules shall be left exclusively to the rules committee. The decision of the judges and tournament officials shall be final in all matters.

3. Participants and eligibility — Participation in the Grand National Bass Bonanza Championship Tournament. Any person is eligible, regardless of age, sex, or race, except guides, marina operators, and their employees, and persons holding a commercial fishing license on Millwood Reservoir. A guide is defined as a person who holds a guide's license for the purpose of guiding fishing parties on Millwood or any person accepting money for guiding a party of fishermen on Millwood Reservoir.

4. Contestants — Fishermen fishing the individual event. The American Angler's Association is making a diligent effort to furnish an official observer for the two days of tournament competition, therefore he will not have another fisherman in the same boat. Everyone fishing the individual event must furnish his own boat and a life vest preserver for his observer.

In the two man team event. Two contestants will be assigned to each boat. No two contestants from the same city will fish together. No two contestants shall fish together more than one day. It shall be the responsibility of each boat partner to have his partner at the mutually agreed upon departure dock on time for check-out. They will work out their own agreements on whose boat they will fish from. Paired partners must fish together and stay together from check out time until they are weighed in at headquarters. An official observer may be added to the boats of paired contestants which are in contention after the first day. Contestants shall divide their time equally in operating the boat. The contestant who is operating the boat shall have the privilege of selecting their route and fishing waters. Any fishing arrangements other than these must be agreed upon by both partners.

5. Type of tackle — Only artificial lures may be used. No live bait or prepared bait will be permitted; however, pork or pork-type strips, rinds, etc. may be used. Only rods and reels are permitted (casting, spinning, 7' feet maximum length). Only one rod may be in use and in the water at any one time. Other rigged rods may be in the same boat for substitutes. Any mechanical device, such as depth finders, thermometers, oxygen gauges, etc. may be used unless it is in violation of Arkansas fish laws.

6. Boats and motors — Boats may be used that are 14 feet or more in length. Any motor may be used. Paired contestants may use electric motor or maneuver the boat while casting. Trolling, as a method of fishing, is prohibited. Paired contestants are expected to work out their own arrangements for, and as to, the expense of the boat and motor.

7. Permitted fishing waters — No fishing will be permitted within 50 yards of any dock or within 90 yards of another contestant's boat which was in the location first. All fishing must be done from the boat; bank fishing is prohibited. All territorial water of Millwood Reservoir may be fished.

Contestants must check back in at the official headquarters no later than 6:00 p.m. on the first tournament day and no later than 5:00 p.m. on the last day of the tournament. No contestant may out of his boat for any reason whatsoever during tournament hours.

Contestants must sign out and in at the official check point, via boat, and will not be allowed to remove their boats from the water until they have signed in at the official weigh-in station. Paired contestants must remain at the official weigh-in station. Any contestant signing in late, or not signing in at all, will lose all points for that day's fishing.

9. Scoring — Ten points per ounce for Black Bass (large mouth, Kentucky-Spotted, Small Mouth), minimum length 10 inches. Only ten (10) aggregate of the above species shall be counted.

Tournament winners will be determined by the total points accumulated during the two days of fishing. All fish weighed in shall be presented to local charity, except trophy fish which will be kept by tournament officials until after completion of the tournament.

BIG GAMES ON TAP COAST TO COAST; HOOPLER LIKES TEXAS, TROJANS, IRISH

for games of Saturday, September 19

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLER
Original Wizard of Odds

Egad, friends, this Saturday's schedule will delight even the zaniest football fan!

No matter where one looks—east, midwest, south, southwest or far west—there's a football treat in store.

In the east, resurgent Pittsburgh will host powerful UCLA. The midwest boasts several top flight attractions including Notre Dame-Northwestern, Missouri-Minnesota, Indiana-Colorado, Michigan-Arizona and Purdue-TCU. Promising thrilling action for southern residents are the Florida-Mississippi State, Georgia Tech-Florida State and LSU-Texas A&M clashes to name just a few.

In the southwest defending national champ Texas hosts the California Bruins, Arkansas meets Colorado State U., and Oklahoma entertains Wisconsin. Leading attractions in the far west feature Southern California-Nevada, Stanford-San Jose State, Oregon State-Iowa and Washington-Michigan State. Would that we could select all of these fine teams to be winners, but alas, that is not the case.

We've painstakingly analyzed and reanalyzed the strengths and weaknesses of the various clubs and conferences involved and—kaff-kaff—have prepared a letter-perfect slate of winners for you—har-rumph!

The Pitt Panthers reaching for the glory of yesterday will give UCLA and its demon quarterback Dennis Dummit a real scare before succumbing by a 27-17 count. At Evanston, Illinois, it will be a similar story as talented Mike Adamle and the Northwestern Wildcats battle Notre Dame in the season opener for both elevens. The Hoopler System pegs the Fighting Irish to prevail 49-27 but only after a spirited tussle!

The Missouri-Minnesota contest will be close all the way with Dan Devine's "show-me" lads taking the nod 26-21. In the other games involving Big Ten teams, The Hoosiers of Johnny Pont will stop Colorado, Michigan will edge Arizona, and The Purdue Boilermakers will flatten TCU, 45-14. In the latter meeting keep your eye on Purdue sophomore Chuck Piebes who well could be another quarterback of the Len Dawson-Mike Phipps-Bob Griese variety. And that, kiddies, is a lot of quarter-back—um-kumph!

Down south I predict victories for Florida over Mississippi State, 24-14, Georgia Tech over Florida State, 36-12, and the LSU Tigers over Texas A&M, 42-21.

Out west, the mighty Trojans of Southern California and Stanford's Indians, both winners last week, and the Oregon State Beavers will register impressive triumphs over Nebraska, San Jose State and Iowa respectively. The Washington-Michigan State affair promises to be something else with Duffy Daugherty's Spartans the surprise victors 28-20!

Remember you read these in Hoopler first—har-rumph!

Now go on with the forecast:

ASU Hopes to Gain on the Razorbacks

By HARRY KING

Associated Press Writer
JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Soon, there will be some grounds for comparing the football teams at the University of Arkansas and Arkansas State University.

ASU opens its season Saturday against Wichita. Arkansas plays the same team Oct. 24.

For years, Arkansas has been THE football school in the state. But, ASU has gained respect with two straight Southland Conference titles. The professional showings of Bill Bergey and Clovis Swinney have not hurt the Indians' image, nor has television exposure in the Pecan Bowl.

ASU Coach Bennie Ellender says the scheduling of Wichita was coincidental.

"We are attempting to upgrade our program and schedule to a major college status and Wichita State merely represents a step in that direction," Ellender said.

"I'm sure more of the state's fans are more familiar with Wichita, but that certainly has no bearing on our approach to the game or the fact that we're playing them," Ellender said. "They just happened to be a step up from some of the teams we've played in the past. It's just a matter of progress."

The Indians, who are favored to repeat in the SLC, also meet The Citadel, Louisiana Tech and Southern Illinois this year.

Ellender has praised the Indians through much of fall practice and says they have reached "a level of proficiency where we need to play a game very badly."

"This is the only way we can get an indication at this point of how far we've progressed," Ellender said. "I think we're physically and mentally ready."

Three juniors — quarterback James Hamilton, fullback Marshall Walls and tailback Calvin Harrell — will carry the offensive load for the Indians.

"All things considered, I wouldn't swap these people for any three I've seen," said offensive backfield coach Bill Templeton. "Together, they represent about as much offensive potential as I've seen on a football field."

Hamilton, a 206-pounder, has gained more than 2,500 yards total offense in two years while Walls, an excellent blocker, rushed for 564 yards in 1969.

Harrell spectacularly filled a void at tailback last fall, gaining 984 yards. Templeton says Harrell is faster and smarter this year.

Wichita State opened its season last week, losing 41-14 to Texas A&M.

Models Lifted From Doped Weightlifters

By GEORGE STRODE

Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The cases of nine disqualified competitors in the World Weightlifting Championships were to be reviewed today and insiders gave them little chance of regaining their medals.

"What they decided here will stand and it will have a good effect not only on weightlifting but other sports as well," a meet official predicted Wednesday night.

Four more lifters, including featherweight champion Mieczyslaw Nowak of Poland, were disqualified Wednesday night after five competitors, among them flyweight winner Sandor Holczreiter of Hungary, had been stripped of their ribbons Tuesday night.

All were charged with taking the stimulant phenylethylamine because urine specimen tests taken after the competition showed positive.

The 17-member International Weightlifting Federation executive committee heard protests today from the Soviet Union, Poland, Hungary and Japan, the nations whose lifters had been disqualified.

"We'll listen to their protests but we expect the decisions to stand," Clarence Johnson of Detroit, IWF president, said. He said the original voting on the disqualifications was unanimous.

Johnson admitted the requirement for tests of only the top three finishers in each division — an IWF rule under fire here — needed revision.

"They all should be tested," Johnson said. "But we cannot change the rules until 1972, an Olympic year."

Joe Dube, a super heavy-weight from Ricketts's Inlet, Fla., and the only current U.S. world champion, said, "The guys who finished fourth probably were taking it too. They are just as guilty as the first three. Why should they not be tested and then be moved up to the championship?"

"I don't take it (the stimulant) but most of the boys do," Dube said. "I don't need it. I get jacked up enough without it. But it's not fair for the boys who don't take it," he said.

Disqualified along with Nowak Wednesday night were Jan Wójcikowski of Poland and Yoshiyuki Miyake of Japan, who finished second and third in the featherweight competition, and Janos Bagocs of Hungary, third in the lightweight lifting.

A 365-pound clean and jerk earned Soviet soldier Victor Kurentsov, a 1968 Olympic gold medalist, his fourth world middleweight crown Wednesday night.

Mohammad Trabulsi, 19, of Lebanon, claimed an unofficial jerk record of 375% pounds.

This is the type of locomotive used in 1907 when the so called Full Crew Laws were enacted in Arkansas.

It's already a museum piece at Lewisville, Arkansas.

Trains have changed... times have changed... Arkansas has changed. This is 1970... not 1907.

The 1971 Mustang Mach I (top) features a unique hood, grille and front bumper. The color-keyed, air-foil-shaped, urethane molded bumper doubles as an efficient air-spoller, improving high speed roadability. The Mustang SportsRoof model (bottom) features a unique "flat roof" design in combination with Mustang's all-new sheet metal for '71.

The 1971 Ford LTD is highlighted by this new front end treatment featuring a forward-thrusting center grille section and dual exposed headlamps. This LTD two-door Brougham includes a new, standard high back bench seat which eliminates the need for separate headrests. Ford's new side impact protection system, flush door handles, concealed windshield wipers and a new two-tiered, coved instrument panel also are standard features of the 1971 Ford.

Casper Watches Wind, Rain in Ireland

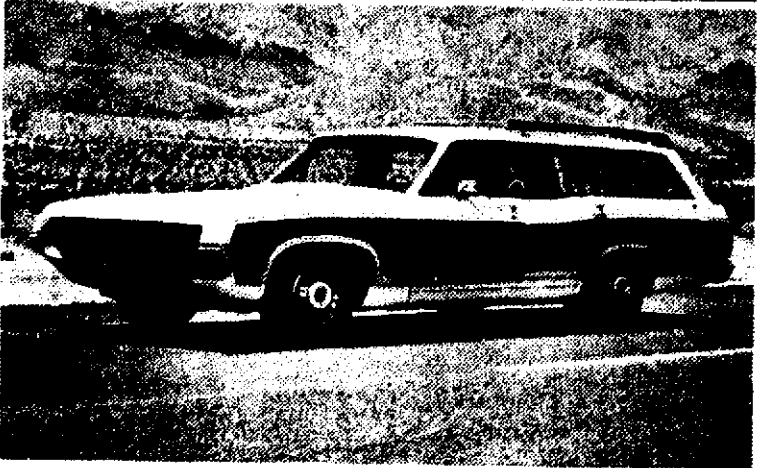

PORTMARNOCK, IRELAND (AP) — Masters winner Billy Casper today watched wind and rain sweeping over the Portmarnock course where he is preparing to defend his Alcan Golfer of the Year title.

"This is a great course," the Bonita, Calif., star said. "But if the wind comes up any more it could become very difficult."

Casper was favored to win the tournament starting today over Portmarnock's 7,117 yards, par 72 layout. The winner picks up a prize of $55,000.

Last year, at Cleveland, Casper won the title after Lee Trevino, former U.S. Open champion from El Paso, Tex., appeared to have it all sewn up. Trevino lost six shots on the last three holes and the championship went to Casper.

Other top Americans competing include Miller Barber, Bob Murphy, Charles Coody, Bob Rosburg, Trevino, Bob Yancey and Dave Hill. Foreign entries include Bob Charles of New Zealand and Australians Bruce Crampton and Bruce Devlin.

The 1971 Torino sports subtle styling refinements to enhance its popular 1970 design. A new recessed, two-section grille dominates the front appearance of the Torino 500, Torino GT (top) and Torino Brougham models. The Torino Squire (bottom) is available in six- and eight-passenger variations and will add to Ford's "Wagonmaster" reputation.

SPORT SHORTS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS EDMONTON (AP) — Sweden beat Canada 201-146 in over-all points in a two-day, two-nation track and field competition which ended Wednesday.

The Canadian women outscored the Swedish women 68-67, but the Swedish men beat the Canadian men, especially in the long distance running events, 134-78.

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — James Van Alen, inventor of the nine-point scoring system to prevent long matches, was beaten 7-6 Wednesday by Frank Clem of Norwood, Mass., in the 65-year-old division in the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association's senior men's tennis tournament.

St. John Chrysostom is known as the "father of the Greek Church."

Invincibility of Fiddle Isle Is Punctured

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Fort Marcy, the representative of the East, punctured the aura of invincibility surrounding Fiddle Isle, the invader from California, and is considered today the leader in the race for the 1970 national grass course championship.

The sturdy 6-year-old gelding from Paul Mellon's Rokeby Stables in Virginia, ridden by Jorge Velasquez and trained by Elliott Burch, walloped Fiddle Isle by a decisive five lengths in the $125,000 United Nations Handicap at Atlantic City Wednesday.

This prestigious invitational 13-16 mile turf race is billed for the national grass course championship and it is a fact that its winner usually has been voted the champion in the year-end polls.

There is a possibility that Fort Marcy and Fiddle Isle will meet again in the $100,000 Man O'War at Belmont Park on Oct. 17. There also is the possibility both will be invited to compete in the Washington, D.C. International at Laurel Nov. 11.

Fiddle Isle, a 5-year-old by Bagdad, owned by Howard Keck of Los Angeles, trained by Charley Whittingham and ridden by Willie Shoemaker, had been brought East especially to enhance his reputation after winning five straight turf stakes in California.

Top-weighted at 127 pounds, he had twice beaten Fort Marcy by narrow margins on the coast this year, but it was Fort Marcy who was best in the UN at 125 pounds.

Velasquez, in scoring his second straight UN triumph, kept Fort Marcy back in fifth place while Distinctive set the early pace. He followed his plan of always staying in front of Fiddle Isle and came to the outside at the top of the stretch and drew out to win easily.

Shoemaker and Whittingham offered no excuses. "He ran very well," said Shoemaker, who earlier had upped his world record all-time career number of winners to 6,045. "We got out-run. He gave his best but the winner was better today. That's the way it happens."

Fort Marcy earned $75,000 to up his 1970 earnings to $213,072 and his career bankroll to $867,815 in 84 starts. Fiddle Isle picked up $25,000 second-place money and now has earned $256,500 this year and $388,095 in 34 career starts.

Goalby Sure He Can Again Master Course

ROBINSON, Ill. (AP) — Bob Goalby has won only one tournament since the scoring card signing incident projected him over Roberto DeVicenzo to a master's title in 1968.

The lone victory came a year ago in the Robinson golf classic not far from Goalby's hometown of Belleville, Ill. He hasn't won since. He is back again in the $100,000 tourney shooting for the first prize of $20,000.

Goalby is buried in the 67th spot of the current PGA money winning list with only $26,929.

He fired a three over par 74 in Wednesday's Pro-Am event but still thinks he again can master the three-hemmed compact Crawford Country Club course. He fired a 15 under par 273 last year when the regulation was 72 and one of his rounds set a course record of 62.

Par has been lowered to 71 this time.

"The main thing here is to drive for position — use a three wood much of the time," said Goalby. "Chipping and putting also play a big part. The greens are tricky and slick and the tournament could well be decided on them."

Meanwhile, Frank Beard, No. 6 on the money list with $120,182, carried the favorite's role as 147 players teed off in the four-day tournament Thursday.

Beard, winner of the recent American Golf Classic, as well as the earlier Tournament of Champions, warmed up with a 67 Wednesday. Also shooting 67 were John Schlee, Fred Martin, J.C. Sneed and Mason Rudolph.

Young Larry Hinson, eighth leading money winner with $113,399, struggled through the Pro-Am with a 74.

Some of the game's top names are missing, including Billy Casper, Jack Nicklaus, Tony Jacklin, Dave Stockton and Arnold Palmer.

The tournament, a full-scale promotion by the city of 8,000 population and surrounding communities, has grown from a $2,000 weekend event in 1962 to its present $100,000 status on the regular PGA.

Cup Series Gets Back Into Water

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — After a day with the sea lawyers the 1970 America's Cup series got back into the water today. Cup rules require a race to be completed within six hours. But it took 22 to decide Intrepid was, indeed, the winner of Tuesday's first race in this famed yachting competition.

That was the elapsed time for the New York Yacht Club's race committee to decide to disallow protests by Intrepid, representing the United States, as well as her Australian challenger, Gretel II.

Beverux Barker III, chairman of the committee, told a news conference Wednesday that neither yacht had fouled the other in a near collision seven minutes before the start of the first of the best of 7 series.

"That's that. Let's get back to racing," said a Gretel II spokesman.

"We're set. Got the protest flag ready," said Steve Van Dyke, Intrepid's tactician.

Van Dyke blamed the problem on the Aussie's interpretation of the right of way rules.

"We don't think a right of way boat on the starboard tack is free to change course with another boat. They do."

The deliberations didn't interfere with the racing. Gretel II had already asked for the day off to recuperate from a day in glorious enough to make any Aussie take up sheep ranching. Her crew worked over her damaged sheet winches and a cap was installed forward to prevent another man-overboard situation which happened in Tuesday's choppy seas.

Thursday, September 17, 1970

Happy Over $1 Million Tennis Tour

NEW YORK (AP) — Arthur Ashe, enthused over a million dollar tour and disgusted over the prospects of no open Davis Cup competition in the near future, has finally decided to turn full professional tennis player.

Ashe, the No. 2 ranked American player; Charles Pasarell, No. 5 and Bob Lutz, No. 6, signed five-year contracts Wednesday with Lamar Hunt's World Championship Tennis tour.

"I didn't sign for the money," said Ashe, the 27-year-old Negro from Richmond, Va., whose contract reportedly was worth more than $750,000. "I was offered more in the past to sign. I just felt now was the time."

Playing before as an independent, he said Hunt's recent announcement of a world championship 20-tournament tour in 1971 with 32 of the world's top players, played a big part in his decision.

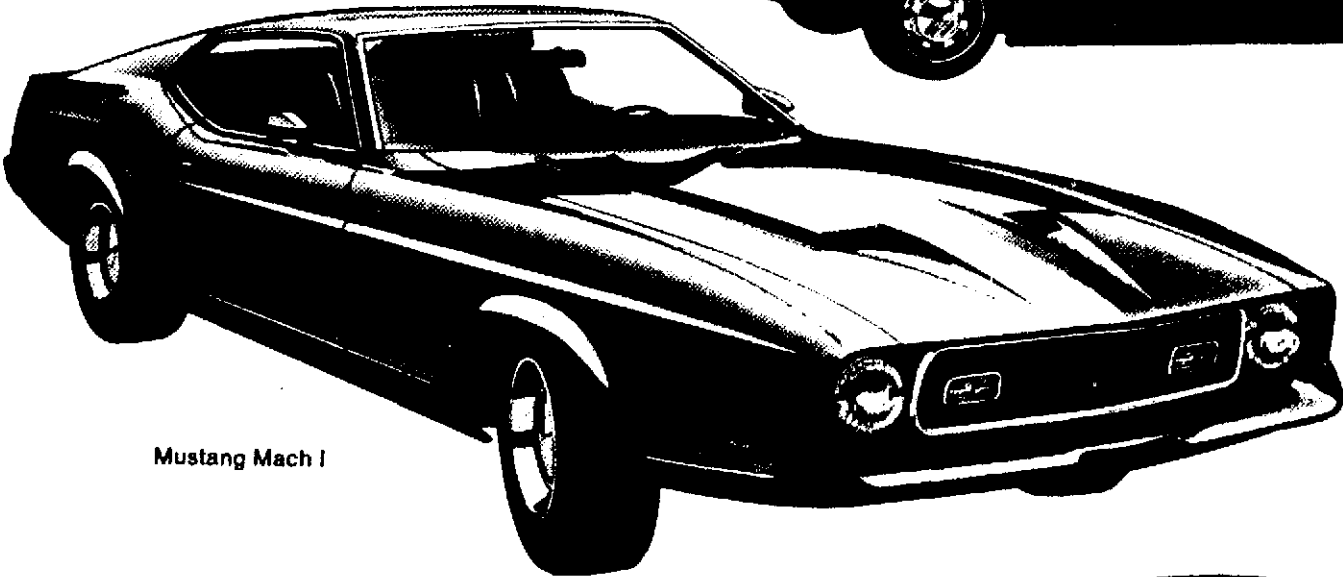

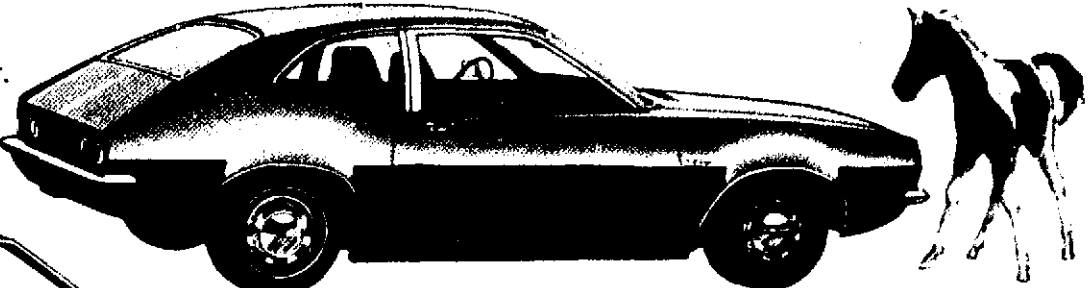

The articulate and outspoken Ashe, who has expressed concern over the direction of tennis, feels the tour "is a move in the right direction."

He also had said earlier he would not play again for the United States in Davis Cup play unless the competition was open to pros, which is highly unlikely.

The first contract tournament was the 1929 Eastern Pairs. George Reith, one of the great auction stars, was chairman of the tournament committee. He was so busy getting the tournament going that he had no time to get himself a partner. At the last moment he found an unknown youngster named Oswald Jacoby and Reith's victory in that event started the Jacoby career in Bridge.

George used a point-count no-trump. Nothing as simple as 4-3-2-1. He counted 6-4-3-2-1. This gave the 10 spot some definite value and while the method required lots of addition it was far better than honor count.

Young Jacoby agreed to play the Reith count out of deference to his elderly partner. In 1929 Jacoby used honor tricks as did almost every other expert. It wasn't until 1932 that Jacoby got around to the use of point count and his successful experience with the Reith count in 1929 had a lot to do with his early conversion.

Rock Music Group Rejects Agnew Claim

By ANN HENCKEN
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Rock music spokesmen reject both the tune and the lyrics of Vice President Spiro Agnew's claim that some songwriters and filmmakers encourage drug use. They say he's too far out of it to dig the difference.
In a speech to Republicans in Las Vegas, Nev., on Monday night, Agnew said American youths were being "brain-washed" into a "drug culture" by rock music, books, films and underground newspapers. He added that many rock songs present the use of drugs in "such an attractive light, that for the impressionable, turning on becomes the natural and even the approved thing to do."
Some rock 'n' roll authorities said some of the song titles Agnew referred to were either ancient history to today's young people or not necessarily about drugs. Others said Agnew failed to distinguish between marijuana and other drugs, an important distinction to the younger generation.

Of the songs that do refer to drugs, "The history of popular music is a reflection of what people are already into," said Ben Fong-Torres, associate editor of Rolling Stone, a rock magazine.

Agnew quoted a line from a Beatles' 1967 song, "I get high with a little help from my friends."

"It's a catchy tune, but until it was pointed out to me, I never realized that the 'friends' were assorted drugs," said Agnew.

Allen Klein, president of ABKCO Industries, management firm for the Beatles, said, "I would like to know what he bases his assumption on."

Another song Agnew mentioned was "Eight Miles High," by the Byrds.

Ed Tickner, the group's manager, said, "A lot of hullabaloo was raised over the song, but if you listen to the lyrics, you'll see the song is about the group's first trip to England as rock and roll stars. There isn't even any subtlety in that song advocating the use of drugs. Eight miles high refers to how high the airplane flies."

"Does 'Smoke Gets in Your Eyes' advocate the use of tobacco? That's how silly it could get."

Some complained that Agnew didn't recognize that rock groups have produced strong anti-drug songs. Agnew mentioned Steppenwolf's "Don't Step on the Grass, Sam." This song asks the government not to outlaw marijuana, according to Bill Utley, president of Rob Foster Associates, the group's personal management company.

But it was pointed out that Steppenwolf has also recorded "The Pusher" with lyrics condemning heroin peddlers.

"We feel it's regrettable that Spiro Agnew continues to make statements. He lumps drugs all together. The so-called youth culture has condemned the use of speed and other hard, dangerous drugs," Utley said.

Deadline Is Fixed for Dollarway

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Henley Tuesday set Oct. 5 as the deadline for the Dollarway School District to eliminate the racial identification of its three elementary schools.

Henley said the district must achieve "a completely unitary school system of elementary schools in which no school can be identified as being a black or predominantly black school and in which no school can be identified as being a white or predominantly white school."

The Dollarway district, near Pine Bluff, opened the fall term with elementary schools zoned on a neighborhood school concept similar to a plan used last year.

The Dollarway enrollment is 55 per cent black. Henley said that a desegregation plan approved earlier by him was only for the 1969-70 school year. He said that 14 months ago he directed the school board "to integrate its elementary schools by the beginning of this year and to keep them integrated."

Nixon Lashes Hecklers, Violence

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — President Nixon says the threat of massive heckling deters him and other political figures from appearances on college campuses today.

"It's a sad day when a great university can't hear controversial speakers—and any man in political life is controversial," the President told newsmen Wednesday.

Nixon indicated he would like to make more campus appearances like the one Wednesday at Kansas State University, where he was thunder applauded by a middle American audience of over 15,000.

Nixon struck a responsive cheer at Kansas State when he declared, "The time has come for us to recognize that violence and terror have no place in a free society."

He talked to reporters about his pleased reactions to this rare campus appearance when he came to Chicago for an overnight visit to talk with Midwest news media executives and to greet some Polish-Americans and naturalized citizens today.

Despite some "insignificant heckling," Nixon said he felt the big campus audience got every implication of his appeal for reason, tolerance and "an uncompromising stand against those who reject the rules of civilized conduct and of respect for it there."

The President didn't mention it, but the majority of the audience rose and applauded when he appealed to responsible college administrators, faculty and student leaders "to stand up and be counted" to save higher education.

He said he was impressed that the majority in the huge campus fieldhouse seemed to "get every nuance" and that their applause and reactions indicated "they listened—they understood—they knew—they reacted" to a speech which he described as "without cheer lines."

The President said he knew he would "get a response" when he talked about the Wildcat football team. At that point in his speech a heckler shouted from the balcony, "We don't want to hear about it. What about the war?"

ASC County Committeemen Are Elected

Farmers of Hempstead County have elected a total of 35 ASC community committeemen and alternates in a mail election conducted earlier this month, according to H.B. Gilbert, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee.

ASC community committees assist the County ASC Committee in administering farm programs in Hempstead County, such as wheat, cotton, and peanuts acreage allotments, feed grain bases and agricultural conservation cost sharing measures. They also help keep local producers informed of farm program provisions and regulations.

In addition, the just-elected ASC community committees have an important responsibility in the near future in filling vacancies on the County ASC Committee and determining the chairman and vice-chairman for the coming year, Mr. Gilbert said.

The new ASC community committeemen will convene September 28 at 10:00 A.M. in the Conference Room in the Federal Building at Hope in a meeting open to the public. They will elect one County Committeeman to serve a three-year term and two alternates to serve one-year terms. After the vacancies are filled, the community committeemen will determine which of the three regular members of the County ASC Committee will be Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

Each of the seven ASC committees will elect one committeeman and one alternate.

Agnew Calls Chanting Demonstrators Pathetic in Michigan Address

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — After telling chanting demonstrators "you're pathetic," Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has accused some Democrats of encouraging "the most rude, crude and lewd heckling imaginable."

He wrote the accusation into his speech at a Republican fund-raising dinner, fashioning his encounter with the noisy dissenters into political weaponry for his continuing assault on "radical-liberals."

"The obscene shouts of an arrogant few will never in the state of Michigan drown out the quiet voices, young and old, of dignity and decency," the vice president told more than 1,200 people in Grand Rapids Wednesday night.

Agnew returned to Washington shortly after midnight, winding up a week of campaigning in six Senate-election states. His next political task is a Friday night fund-raising appearance in Washington in behalf of C. Stanley Blair, once Agnew's top aide, now the Republican nominee for governor of Maryland.

The Michigan demonstrators, perhaps 100 strong, chanted peace slogans interspersed with obscene taunts from the rear of the crowd of more than 1,100 people in an airport hangar in Saginaw.

"Ladies and gentlemen, that's exactly what we're running against," Agnew told his listeners. "And with enemies like that, how can we lose?"

Reform Bill Moves Near Final Vote

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate supporters of a constitutional amendment to provide for election of the president by direct popular vote failed today to get the two-thirds majority necessary to cut off debate and force the proposal to a vote.

The vote for putting the Senate's debate-closing closure rule into effect was 54 for and 36 against, 6 short of what was needed.

Defeat of the move left in doubt the fate of the proposed amendment, which was approved by the House a year ago by a 339-70 vote and endorsed by President Nixon.

Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., who initiated the debate cut-off move, said he would decide later, after analyzing the vote, whether to ask the Senate to shelve the amendment and go on to other legislation.

He told newsmen the vote would have to be reasonably close to justify a second attempt to shut off the debate, now in its eighth day.

Memories Seem to Give More Comfort Under Gray Skies, Rainfall

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Memories have rose-colored lenses. We don't depend on memories so much on sunny days. But they are a great comfort when skies are gray, the rain falls, and aches and pangs afflict the bones and heart of man.

Memory softens or erases the hurts we knew in other times and casts a magical glow around them. It works on our spirits like a friendly medicine that leaves no bitter after-effects.

You have a fair-sized warehouse of yesterday's yourself if you can look back and remember when—

The winter season wasn't official until the newspapers carried pictures of rich old John D. Rockefeller giving a dime to some kid on a Florida golf course.

There were more pot-bellied stoves than pot-bellied people in America.

If a mother learned her daughter had been seen doing the shimmy on a dance floor, well—she felt the whole family might as well get on the next train and leave town forever, as they'd all been disgraced beyond redemption.

Writer Faces Eye Surgery

HONOLULU (AP) — Playwright Tennessee Williams, en route to Bangkok aboard the liner President Cleveland, says he faces critical surgery by the King of Thailand's doctor.

"He's the only man in the world who can do it," Williams said during a stopover here Wednesday. He did not disclose the nature of the surgery.

Williams, 59, a recent convert to Roman Catholicism, says he works Sunday mornings instead of going to church.

"If there is a supreme being—and I like to think there is—I'm sure he'd rather have me workin' than mumblin'."

Prison Strike Situation Is Tense

CUMMINS PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP) — State Correction Commissioner Robert Sarver said early today the situation at Cummins Prison Farm remained "tense" following a sit-down strike by about 200 inmates.

The strike began Wednesday after an inmate was shot in the back by a tower guard as he rested near the baseball diamond following the noon meal.

Kenneth Odom, 31, who was serving a five-year sentence from Pulaski County for burglary and grand larceny was taken to a Pine Bluff hospital following the shooting. He was in serious condition Wednesday night.

Sarver said the inmates had finished eating lunch and were preparing to return to work when the shooting occurred.

The inmates said the work stoppage was to protest the use of armed tower guards on towers and work details. Odom was reportedly shot by a trustee.

The inmates contended the trustee guard system was unfair to those who were guarded. The strikers also said it was unfair for some convicts to carry weapons.

Nat'l Cystic Fibrosis Drive Is Underway

Mrs. Albert Patton, campaign chairman of the Arkansas Chapter of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, today announced the appointment of special chairman for the 1970 Breath of Life campaign Sept. 19 in Hope.

Heading the Special Gifts Committee is Miss Pat Huckabee of 509 E. 2nd in Hope. Miss Huckabee is President of the Hope High Nike Club.

Chairman of the House-to-House Committee is Larry Patton of 504 S. Elm, Hope who is Vice-Pres. of the Explorer Post 91 and Jr. Scout Master of Troop 92.

The theme this year is "Never Take Breathing for Granted." The Foundation now has expanded its program to include diagnosis and treatment for children with chronic lung-damaging disease, as well as the genetic disease of cystic fibrosis. Children suffering from chronic bronchitis, asthma with lung damage, bronchiectasis, childhood emphysema and other respiratory afflictions whose symptoms closely resemble those of cystic fibrosis, respond dramatically to the same kind of therapy provided cystic fibrosis patients. Cystic fibrosis is an incurable inherited disease due to a biochemical defect. Many patients now are enabled to live useful, productive lives because of recent improvements in therapy.

"We plan to work harder to obtain larger contributions this year, in view of the larger task we have set ourselves," said Mrs. Patton. "With the assistance of committee chairmen and other volunteers, we hope to enlist the support of the citizens from all walks of life in this important fight."

Not so many things bugged people, and nobody had even thought of bugging telephones.

The man-in-the-street felt safe in the street.

The national goal was to "See America First"—not knock it first.

Those were the days—remember?

More Planes Lost Over Cambodia

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. command announced today the loss of the first American fighter-bomber in missions over Cambodia in more than two months and also disclosed that two more helicopters were shot down over Laos.

American fighter-bombers were reported flying raids today along Route 6, north of the Cambodian capital of Phnom Penh. The strikes were aimed at blocking North Vietnamese reinforcements threatening a stalled Cambodian offensive between Skoun, 40 miles north of Phnom Penh, and Kompong Thom, 80 miles north of the capital.

But sources were unable to confirm immediately whether the U.S. bombers had attacked the village of Taling Kauk, 47 miles north of Phnom Penh, where a North Vietnamese and Viet Cong force is reported massed.

The U.S. Command said the fighter-bomber, an F100 Super Sabre Jet, was hit by enemy ground fire Wednesday while conducting "interdiction operations" against supply routes in northeast Cambodia. The command did not give a specific location, but other sources said the jet was hit near Kratie City, about 100 miles northeast of Phnom Penh.

The Air Force said the pilot, 1st Lt. James V. Phillips, 27, of Odessa, Tex., flew the damaged aircraft to the South China Sea, bailed out and was rescued by a U.S. Air Force helicopter.

The U.S. Command said it was the first American aircraft shot down over Cambodia since July 3 and the 45th lost in Cambodian operations since April 29, when the command announced that American aircraft were being used in Cambodia.

In South Vietnam, activity remained light and scattered. The weekly U.S. casualty summary reported 54 Americans killed in action last week a drop of 33 from the previous week and the second lowest weekly toll in nearly four years.

Heavy security precautions were in evidence at the airport and Mrs. Meir's El Al jet parked in an isolated section more than a mile from where passengers usually debark.

Almost every area of Arkansas received rain Wednesday night and more rain is predicted for tonight and Friday.

The shower activity is due mainly to tropical storm Felice. Arkansas was sandwiched between Felice and another front in Missouri, which brought showers to the northern section of the state Wednesday night and promised to do the same today.

Lows tonight will be in the mid 60s to low 70s. High Friday will be in the mid 70s to low 80s.

Highs Wednesday ranged from 95 at Little Rock to 87 at Harrison and Texarkana.

Heavy Fighting Spreads in Jordan as Army Hits Guerrilla Strongholds

Says Israel Not Guilty of Violation

NEW YORK (AP) — Israeli Premier Golda Meir, arriving for urgent consultations of the Middle East situation, has denied a U.S. State Department report that her country has violated "some" provisions of the cease-fire.

"I have not seen the report," she told newsmen at Kennedy Airport Wednesday night. "I know that Israel is not guilty of some violations or any violations whatsoever."

U.S. officials said in Washington Wednesday that Israel had violated the cease-fire by conducting reconnaissance flights over Egypt and by strengthening fortifications at the Suez Canal.

Mrs. Meir stopped here on her way to Washington where she will meet Friday with President Nixon and Secretary of State William P. Rogers.

Of those talks she said, "I hope to have the opportunity to discuss problems of the Middle East, problems that face Israel at present and problems which I believe we have in common with the United States."

Asked to comment on rumors that Israel might soften its position on releasing Arab prisoners in view of the hostages held by guerrilla airplane hijackers, Mrs. Meir said:

"I'm sorry. Those who are in our prisons are men and women who have been brought to trial. They killed or attempted to kill Israelis. They have to serve their terms."

"We believe that a united front of all the countries involved is the best way to free hostages and guarantee that there will be no more hostages in the future."

Heavy security precautions were in evidence at the airport and Mrs. Meir's El Al jet parked in an isolated section more than a mile from where passengers usually debark.

Battle Has Centered in Amman

Palestinian guerrillas battled Jordanian army troops throughout central Jordan in what the guerrillas say will be a final confrontation. Both sides claimed victories in early hours of fighting, and the guerrillas claimed control of key areas of Amman.

The U.S. Command said the fighter-bomber, an F100 Super Sabre Jet, was hit by enemy ground fire Wednesday while conducting "interdiction operations" against supply routes in northeast Cambodia. The command did not give a specific location, but other sources said the jet was hit near Kratie City, about 100 miles northeast of Phnom Penh.

The Air Force said the pilot, 1st Lt. James V. Phillips, 27, of Odessa, Tex., flew the damaged aircraft to the South China Sea, bailed out and was rescued by a U.S. Air Force helicopter.

The U.S. Command said it was the first American aircraft shot down over Cambodia since July 3 and the 45th lost in Cambodian operations since April 29, when the command announced that American aircraft were being used in Cambodia.

In South Vietnam, activity remained light and scattered. The weekly U.S. casualty summary reported 54 Americans killed in action last week a drop of 33 from the previous week and the second lowest weekly toll in nearly four years.

Says Israel Not Guilty of Violation

NEW YORK (AP) — Israeli Premier Golda Meir, arriving for urgent consultations of the Middle East situation, has denied a U.S. State Department report that her country has violated "some" provisions of the cease-fire.

"I have not seen the report," she told newsmen at Kennedy Airport Wednesday night. "I know that Israel is not guilty of some violations or any violations whatsoever."

U.S. officials said in Washington Wednesday that Israel had violated the cease-fire by conducting reconnaissance flights over Egypt and by strengthening fortifications at the Suez Canal.

Mrs. Meir stopped here on her way to Washington where she will meet Friday with President Nixon and Secretary of State William P. Rogers.

Of those talks she said, "I hope to have the opportunity to discuss problems of the Middle East, problems that face Israel at present and problems which I believe we have in common with the United States."

Asked to comment on rumors that Israel might soften its position on releasing Arab prisoners in view of the hostages held by guerrilla airplane hijackers, Mrs. Meir said:

"I'm sorry. Those who are in our prisons are men and women who have been brought to trial. They killed or attempted to kill Israelis. They have to serve their terms."

"We believe that a united front of all the countries involved is the best way to free hostages and guarantee that there will be no more hostages in the future."

All Areas in Arkansas Got Some Rain

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Almost every area of Arkansas received rain Wednesday night and more rain is predicted for tonight and Friday.

The shower activity is due mainly to tropical storm Felice. Arkansas was sandwiched between Felice and another front in Missouri, which brought showers to the northern section of the state Wednesday night and promised to do the same today.

Lows tonight will be in the mid 60s to low 70s. High Friday will be in the mid 70s to low 80s.

Highs Wednesday ranged from 95 at Little Rock to 87 at Harrison and Texarkana.

that samples or human head hair of Canadian citizens indicates rising levels of mercury in recent years, a finding that tends to support the idea that contamination of people may actually be taking place.

Mercury tends to concentrate in the brain, liver, spleen, kidneys, blood, saliva, the lining of the small intestine, muscles and bones. In large enough concentrations it can cause speech defects, paralysis, blindness, insanity. Swedish scientists have reported that mercury poisoning can produce birth defects and abortions.

The effects of long-term, low-level exposure are unknown.

The World Health Organization Food and Agriculture Organization suggest a general tolerance level for mercury in most foods of 0.05 parts per million. The FDA says there is no real safe tolerance. Fish containing more than one-half part per million of mercury may be seized.

The Jervis study reported finding levels consistently above the WHO standard.

At the FDA, Richard J. Ronk, chief of the guidelines branch in the Bureau of Foods, said a survey of U.S. food late in 1967 failed to disclose any appreciable amounts of mercury.

Agnew, College Students to Meet on TV

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer
ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, a forthright critic of campus militants, is going to meet six college students on a national television show.

Agnew told a news conference Tuesday they would be "militant students" whom he hoped to persuade that "really what we're all looking for is freedom."

But a spokesman for the David Frost Show, where the confrontation will occur, told newsmen, "We're not going to have the ultra-extremists, or even the extremists."

The spokesman, Marcia Stein, said the students would be "representatives from different campuses who are critics of the administration" and that they would represent a geographic cross section of the country.

The show will be taped next Monday in New York and broadcast Sept. 25.

Agnew said he hoped the show would demonstrate that "there is a greater accord and opinion between some of these militant students and people such as myself whom most would call conservative" than might be supposed.

Meanwhile, Agnew said, his brand of political rhetoric is getting results and he will stick with it, dismissing as a fake issue and a smokescreen opposition assertions that his words are inflammatory.

"I do want to get my message across, and I think I'm doing that," said Agnew, about to wind up the first phase of his vote-hunting travels in behalf of Republican candidates.

Agnew was to campaign today in Saginaw and Grand Rapids, Mich., for Mrs. Lenore Romney, GOP nominee for the Senate, and Rep. Gerald R. Ford, the House Republican leader.

In Albuquerque Tuesday night the vice president hammered away at the politicians he has made the chief villains of his campaign oratory: the "radical liberals."

He urged New Mexicans to elect Republican Anderson Carter to succeed Democratic Sen. Joseph M. Montoya, who, he said, while "not necessarily a radical liberal" is "certainly a big spender."

Agatha Christie Is 80 Yrs. Old

LONDON (AP) — Agatha Christie, the crime story writer, has marked her 80th birthday with the publication of her 80th book, and it's right abreast of the news—about the fictional hijacking of four airliners.

Miss Christie wrote the book months ago. It is called "Passenger to Frankfurt."

"I call the book an extravaganza," she said. But in view of recent headlines, she added, "evidently it is not quite as extravagant or fantastic as I had supposed."

Mercury Found in Foods, Study Reveals

By BRIAN SULLIVAN
AP Science Writer
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The poisonous metal mercury has been discovered in a wide variety of common foods in Canada, according to a new study by scientists at the University of Toronto.

Prof. Robert E. Jervis, a nuclear chemist who directed the study, said it is "quite likely" that a study of foods in the United States would be a potential health hazard.

A spokesman for the U.S. Food and Drug Administration in Washington disputed this, however, saying he would expect to find only "negligible" amounts of mercury in ordinary foods here.

Jervis said his study found significant levels of mercury in wheat, flour, white bread, long-grain rice, skim milk powder, cheese, tea, beef hamburger, beef liver, pork liver, calf liver, fish and poultry.

"We may be having an intake of mercury from regular food that may be as appreciable as from eating contaminated fish," he said. "We have heard a lot about fish, but it may not be the most significant input."

Both the United States and Canada, Jervis said in a telephone interview, should begin immediately to make an official check of common foods.

The FDA spokesman said he was unaware of the Jervis report, but that such a check already had been started.

Comparable studies of fish by the Industrial Laboratory at Eastman Kodak Co. in Rochester indicate the Canadians "are on the right track," according to Dr. Don H. Anderson, laboratory director. Kodak has been concerned about detection of mercury for more than 30 years because even extremely tiny amounts of it damage photographic film.

The Canadian study adds a new dimension to the mercury contamination storm in the United States that began only last March with a Canadian announcement of a fishing ban on Lake St. Clair because of mercury levels in fish of up to 8 parts per million.

Since then, abnormal levels of mercury have been found in water, fish and game birds and has turned up in at least 33 states. Just Tuesday FDA officials in Washington said mercury is being used as a preservative in some cosmetics and should be replaced as quickly as possible with less toxic substances.

The officials said only a relative handful of products contain mercury and there have been no reported cases of mercury poisoning linked to the cosmetics. However, symptoms mimic those of many other ailments and are hard to detect.

Jervis said there is "no definite knowledge" of how mercury gets into the food chain, but the suspicion is that it comes from agricultural uses of mercury in fungicides and herbicides. Industrial users also add mercury to the environment.

Jervis also said in his report

WR to Brief Bumpers on Some Issues

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Aides to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Wednesday that information on "emergency or critical affairs, such as the problems at Earle," would be offered to Democratic gubernatorial nominee Dale Bumpers.

In a statement issued late Wednesday, the office said the information would be passed on to Bumpers or his representative either by Rockefeller or Rockefeller's executive secretary, Robert W. Faulkner.

The statement was issued after newsmen asked whether Bumpers would have access to information that was available to the chief executive.

Bumpers and Rockefeller oppose each other for the governorship in the Nov. 3 general election. Walter Carruth is the American party nominee for the job.

Newsmen asked the governor's office about the matter after Bumpers was asked Wednesday at a news conference whether he planned to comment on current events, such as the Earle racial situation, during the general election campaign.

Bumpers said he would comment on issues about which he had enough information to support his remarks but that he had insufficient information to discuss the situation at Earle.

Texarkana to Replace Teaching Group

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Two Texarkana school boards have voted to replace a professional teaching organization in their second year of the Dropout Prevention Program.

The decision was made after the Dorsett Educational Systems, Inc., of Norman, Okla., was accused of "teaching to test."

Dorsett was to be paid on the basis of the students' test results.

The two school boards, Texarkana and Liberty-Eylau, Tex., voted to hire Educational Development Laboratories and McGraw-Hill to replace Dorsett. Lloyd Dorsett, the president of the company, said he would wait for official notification of the board's action before determining what course he would take on recovering his payment.

Members of the board said they considered the $105,000 already paid Dorsett sufficient and they said they would but the portable classroom from Dorsett if terms could be reached.

Dr. Dean Andrews of the Regional VIII Service Center at Magnolia told the boards that the tests given by Dorsett were invalid, because the items on the test were being taught before the test was taken.

Bank Holding Co. Bill Exempts Many

By H.L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate, ignoring charges it had yielded to an unprecedented lobbying campaign, has approved an exemption-riddled bill regulating the sudden growth of one-bank holding companies.

"This bill started out to regulate one-bank holding companies and ends up exempting most of them," declared Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., as the Senate approved the measure 77-1 Wednesday night.

Proxmire, who cast the lone negative vote, called the measure a mockery and a major step backward. In 13 years in the Senate, he said, he had "never witnessed a more intense lobbying campaign in behalf of special interests."

The bill was sent to conference with the House, which, passed a much tougher version earlier this year.

Under both bills, holding companies that include one bank would be regulated for the first time under provisions of a 1956 act that barred companies controlling two or more banks from branching into unrelated fields.

One-bank holding companies were excluded then and again in 1966 in a House passed bill because Congress felt they posed no threat to the established policy of separating banking from other commercial enterprises.

Audit Not to Affect College Funding

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — William H. Osborne, director of research at State College of Arkansas, told the SCA Board of Trustees here Wednesday that the college would clear itself of the greater part of funds mentioned in a recent audit by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Osborne presented a six-page report to the board and then answered questions from board members.

The HEW audit said the college could not properly account for $112,350 in federal grants, which the college received between Nov. 1, 1968, and Aug. 31, 1969.

Osborne said the audit would not affect college funding.

Osborne, who has helped write all the programs at SCA that involve federal funds, said after the meeting that he would contest every item HEW questioned.

The board refused to answer any questions from reporters about the audit.

In another report dealing with financial matters at SCA, Bennie Horton, the college's vice president in charge of financial affairs, said the college ended the fiscal year June 30 with a surplus of between $45,000 and $75,000 in cash.

Horton, according to the agenda, was supposed to give a full financial report of the past fiscal year. He said, however, the report was incomplete.

Horton asked the board to request an audit by the Legislative Joint Auditing Committee of the college's books for the period since June 30.

Purcell Is Man, Bumpers Declares

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dale Bumpers, the Democratic nominee for governor, said Wednesday that he would make a formal recommendation to the Democratic State Convention this weekend that Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell be named to serve as the new chairman of the state Democratic party.

Bumpers told a Little Rock news conference that Purcell had accepted an offer to take the position.

The 45-year-old Bumpers said that he wanted Purcell "very badly" to serve in the position now held by Charles D. Matthews of North Little Rock, who Bumpers said will give up law practice to help the nominee during the general election campaign.

Bumpers said that if he is elected, Matthews also would assist the governor's office in the 1971 legislative session.

There has been "no negative response from any source" on his choice of Purcell, Bumpers said.

Bumpers, a Charleston lawyer, said he had researched the law and satisfied himself that Purcell could assume the party chairmanship and continue to serve out his term as attorney general.

There had been questions whether Purcell could serve in both capacities, since, as chairman of the party, he would be a member of the state Election Commission and the state Constitution prohibits any state officer from serving on a elective body.

Bumpers said "several" other persons had been considered for the chairmanship, but he declined to name them.

Purcell finished third behind Bumpers in the Aug. 25 preferential primary for the Democratic nomination for governor. Bumpers' news conference was his first since he defeated former Gov. Orval E. Faubus in the Sept. 8 runoff to capture the nomination.

Reporting on his visit Tuesday with Democratic members of Arkansas' congressional delegation in Washington, Bumpers said he was sure the two senators and three Democratic congressmen would do what they feel best in behalf of his general election campaign against Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller and American party candidate Walter

UN Calls for World Efforts in Hijacking

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — General debate at the U.N. General Assembly's 25th anniversary session began today with a call for international efforts to stop airline hijackings and the kidnapping of diplomats.

Brazilian Foreign Minister Mario Gibson Barbosa told the 126-nation assembly. "The problem of aircraft hijacking and imprisonment of hostages demands clear and effective measures on the part of this organization."

Gibson Barbosa said the Organization of American States has "classified as common crimes" the hijacking of airplanes and the seizure of "innocent hostages, particularly diplomatic representatives."

Philippine Foreign Secretary Carlos P. Romulo said he was exploring the possibility of putting a proposal for an international court to try hijackers with a year's General Assembly agenda.

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant made the proposal Monday.

Some Western nations welcomed Thant's pinpointing of the air piracy issue, but questioned the feasibility of a tribunal. Some questions were how to persuade nations to surrender suspected hijackers, and how the tribunal could impose penalties.

Army Planning Race Relations Training

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army, faced with serious black-white conflict on many of its bases, soon will make training in better race relations as much a part of boot camp as drilling and shooting.

The Continental Army Command is putting the finishing touches on a five- or six-hour course aimed at teaching black and white soldiers how to live together. The program may become a model for the other services.

A similar course already has been approved for all officers and noncommissioned officers attending Army training schools and will be put into effect in a few weeks. The recruit course will begin by early next year.

"The idea," said one officer, "is to grab the men as soon as they come into the Army and to let them know we have certain policies and programs that don't condone racial discrimination."

A year ago Gen. William C. Westmoreland, Army chief of staff, ordered a get-tough program drawn up to deal with seriously increasing racial unrest in the ranks.

Racial problems have affected all the services and the military contends it is a reflection of society in general.

However, the problem became particularly serious in recent weeks among Army troops stationed in West Germany where there were several clashes between the races. In one incident, described as a near-riot, 25 men were hurt and several arrested.

This week the Pentagon sent a special team of military and civilian officials to look into racial problems at Navy, Army and Air Force installations throughout Europe.

During its visit Monday to an Air Force base in England, Frank W. Rendon, deputy assistant secretary of defense for civil rights, disclosed the Pentagon is considering a mandatory educational program in race relations for all the armed forces.

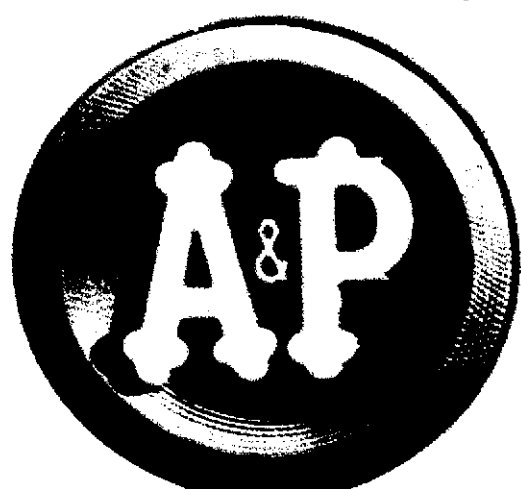

Meanwhile, the Army is going ahead with its own program. The new course features television tapes showing verbal confrontations between blacks and whites. The tapes, explained one official, try to make clear the reasons behind racial prejudices carried into the Army by black and white soldiers.

An Army spokesman said the course is aimed at reaching "the vast middle-of-the-road guys who can be talked to and be made to recognize the problem."

"We have no illusions," he said, "of reaching the hard-core militants on both sides."

help, he said, four Crittenden County sheriff's deputies picked them up and took them to the police station.

He said at the police station he was hit by one deputy and struck with a chair by another.
